

Spanish Teacher/Department Chairperson - Job Description

La Salle Academy, a Christian Brothers School, is seeking a high school Spanish teacher who will also serve as the Department Chairperson. Located in the vibrant and trendy East Village of New York City, La Salle Academy is a Catholic college preparatory school for young men. Deeply steeped in the Lasallian tradition, La Salle Academy celebrates 173 years of educational service and enrolls a diverse student population

Education: Minimum education requires a Bachelor's Degree. The candidate must be fluent in Spanish. They should have state certification in the subject area and/or secondary education or must obtain it within four years from their date of hire.

Experience: Three to five years' experience teaching in a high school environment.

Qualifications:

The candidate will be fluent in Spanish and is required to teach Spanish 1 for native speakers, Spanish 2 for native speakers, and AP Spanish Language and Culture.

Duties:

- Subject area expertise associated with teaching and instruction.
- Ability to perform problem analysis using prescribed principles, methods and concepts.
- Plans, organizes and develops a comprehensive teaching and instruction program for students.
- Utilizes a variety of instructional material and aids appropriate to the intellectual and instructional level of students from varied socio-economic and cultural backgrounds.
- Provides a motivating and stimulating learning environment.
- Provides group and individual instruction to motivate pupils and effectively utilize the time available for instructional activities.
- Reviews, analyzes, evaluates, and reports student's academic, social and emotional growth.
- Supervises and supports other members of the department.

Please send resumes to: employment@lasalleacademy.org