

High School Campus Minister

St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute, an all-boys Lasallian Catholic high school in Buffalo, NY, announces an opening for the position of Campus Minister, to begin work in September 2023. The successful candidate will be able to inspire, develop and nourish the faith lives of all those in the Lasallian community at SJCI through his/her pastoral presence.

Responsibilities:

- Preparing and leading worship and prayer within the entire school community, including the coordination of all school liturgies and reconciliation services.
- Coordinating all aspects of the school's retreat ministry.
- Supporting and leading local and domestic community service programs and activities, while helping students to develop a commitment to social justice and peace.
- Developing programs and structures to promote knowledge of the traditions and life of the Catholic Church and the De La Salle Christian Brothers.
- Facilitating an atmosphere of Christian hospitality where all feel welcome, valued and loved.

The Campus Minister should be a practicing Catholic, a relationship builder, and an effective communicator.

The time requirements for this position are formed by the needs of the program, and include some time outside of regular school hours.

A Bachelor's degree is required. A completed (or in-progress) master's degree in Pastoral Ministry, Religious Studies, or a related field is preferable.

The Campus Minister reports to the Principal and will work collaboratively with students, faculty, and administrators.

Compensation:

Starting salary ranges from $36,000-$65,000, based on experience, and in accordance with the St. Joseph's Faculty Organization's negotiated contract. Additional compensation is offered for leading programs during vacation weeks and the summer months.

Contact Information:

Applicants should apply for this position through WNYRIC School Jobs at wnyric.org.