

RESOURCE OF THE MONTH

The Letters of John Baptist de La Salle

THE LETTERS
of
John Baptist de La Salle

The art of letter writing has long represented a caring act of building and deepening relationship, connecting people around the world under a variety of circumstances. The Letters of John Baptist de La Salle, translated into English by Brother Colman Malloy, FSC, and first published in 1988, contains the firsthand letters of the Founder to a variety of Brothers and contemporaries. Though not the complete collection of the Founder, the letters retained by the Institute provide a glimpse into the day-to-day life of the early communities and the interpersonal workings of the early Brothers.

In The Letters of John Baptist de La Salle, we find the deep spiritual wisdom imparted by De La Salle, offering encouragement, challenge and hope. His letters to the Brothers take on a personal tone, with De La Salle embodying both spiritual guide and practical founder. The letters to others, though more formal, still maintain a sense of connection with and fondness for the recipient.

Read *The Letters of John Baptist de La Salle*

The reflection questions below cater to the personal, introspective journey, providing direction for interior prayer and meditation. The dialogue prompts below offer questions, inspired by portions of The Letters of John Baptist de La Salle, designed for small and large group discussions.

Reflection Questions

- What resonates with me from this resource?
- What challenges me from this resource?
- What questions do I have from reading this resource?
- How am I being called to respond?

Dialogue Prompts

- What letter stands out most? Why?
- What do De La Salle's letters communicate about his relationship with those around him?
- How do the spiritual practices shared in De La Salle's letters transfer to contemporary contexts?
- How has the practice of letter writing (giving or receiving) impacted my life?

For more on Lasallian Spirituality, visit

www.lasallian.info/spirituality

This resource is provided by Christian Brothers Conference, the office for the Lasallian Region of North America.